

Meyer House Care Home residents enjoy musical London Pride Show

Our residents at Meyer House Care Home enjoy nothing better than a good old fashioned singalong and 'knees up', which is exactly what we did last week when performer Jamie came to visit!

Jamie put on his 'London Pride' show for us, with some fantastic songs and costume changes.

Our ladies and gents enjoyed beer, wine, mocktails and nibbles with the show and there was lots of dancing and singing all afternoon – our staff had a fantastic time too.

We certainly know how to have a good time at Meyer House – thanks for coming Jamie!
