

Meyer House Care Home residents make festive table decorations

We had a lovely morning this week at Meyer House Care Home, making our table decorations for Christmas.

Lots of thought and concentration went into them and they are looking beautiful on all our tables – a real splash of green, red and gold.

We love the festive season!

