

Meyer House Care Home residents paint their salt dough Christmas decorations

There was lots of concentration going on at Meyer House Care Home last week when a group of our residents got busy painting their handmade salt dough decorations, all ready to hang on our tree.

With lots of bright colours and a sprinkle of glitter, they're bound to look amazing!

Here's to some Christmas sparkle!