

Meyer House Care Home residents share memories of London

This week at Meyer House Care Home we had an enjoyable afternoon looking at some photos of London, chatting and reminiscing about eras from the past.

Everyone had their own special memories from different times of their lives and it was lovely to hear all the different stories and tales.

A really nice way to spend the afternoon together.