

Painting Indian flags at Meyer House Care Home

We had a busy and productive day last week here at Meyer House Care Home, with everyone making their own flags ready for our arrival in India this month on our virtual Nellsar Cruise.

Our residents did a great job with their painting skills.

We'll look forward to waving them as we approach Indian shores in a few weeks!

We enjoy painting...