

Perfect pumpkins at Meyer House Care Home

Our wonderful gentleman Bill at Meyer House Care Home has always been an avid artist, so we like to encourage him to sketch and paint as much as we can.

Here he is – really concentrating while painting a funny face on his pumpkin!

Bill shared some friendly competition with our Home Manager, Libby, who's pictured above carving and painting her first ever pumpkin. Libby is extremely proud of her pumpkin – rightly so!

