

The carers and support staff are friendly and professional

The carers and support staff are friendly and professional. The environment immediately makes you feel comfortable, particularly in these difficult times. They treat the residents with care and respect and nothing is a problem. The rooms are pleasantly decorated and clean. As visitors, the staff make you comfortable. Mum is very happy and comfortable there.