

West End performance at Meyer House Care Home

Our Meyer House Care Home residents were extremely lucky on Friday 22 December to have the West End brought into our Home!

Our resident Sheila's great grandson Max plays one of the lead characters 'Bruce Bogtrotter' in the fantastic stage show Matilda*, which is currently on at the Cambridge Theatre in London.

Max, his sister and one of his cousins performed Christmas songs for us, plus some songs from the show – and they were amazing!

This was really lovely for our residents who used to enjoy trips to the theatre. They all thoroughly enjoyed it.

Huge thanks to the children for coming to see us and performing so beautifully.
